AQUINAS LAUGHLIN DIES MONDAY NIGHT

After a Lingular Illness at the Home of His Mother, Mrs. F. C. Laughlin, on Maysville Street.

The Death Angel visited our city Monday night and took from our midst the soul of T. Aquinas Laughlin, aged 18. The young man had been in poor health for several months, but death came as a shock to his friends, as he was able to be out and walk around as late as Sunday afternoon.

Upon the death of his father, F. C. Laughlin, a little over a year ago, he took charge of his mother's business but was after a few months forced to give it up owing to ill health. He was one of the most popular young men in the city, possessing a genial disposition with the faculty of making friends, one of the chief characteristics of his deceased father. While he had not yet reached his majority he always took an active interest in everything that tended toward the advancement and prosperity of our city and was ever ready to contribute to any good cause.

He had been sick a long time, but bore his suffering without a murmur and was never heard to complain, his chief thought always being to protect and shield from worry and care for his widowed mother. His life is an example of a good, true and loving son, and he goes to his reward in heaven with the respect and esteem of everyone.

He is survived by his mother and grandfather, four brothers and five sisters who, in their hour of sorrow, have the sympathy of the entire community.

Wreck at Preston.

Twelve freight cars of a train on the C. & O. railroad were ditched Friday morning about 4 o'clock near Preston. The cars jumped the track and tore up the rails for a considerable distance. The engine did not leave the track and no one was hurt. However all traffic was blocked during the day, and the through train for the East from Lexington was sent by way of Covington, where it took the main line to Ashland. The local trains were run to the scene of the wreck, where the passengers were transferred to a train on the other side of the torn-up track.

Our line of cut glass has never been so beautiful. All new shapes and patterns from the smallest to the largest pieces.

Saloon to Move.

Mr. P. H. Davis will move his saloon from the north side of Main street to the building purchased by Mr. Joe Miller and recently vacated by Mr. Mike Holland. The moving of the saloon of Mr. Davis will now make all the saloons on Main street on the south side of said street, in keeping with a petition filed with the council by the members of the Methodist church.

C. R. PREWITT AND MISS BETTIE OWINGS

Surprise Their Many Friends by Being Quietly Married at the Bride's Home Thursday Afternoon.

The many friends of Mr. Clifton R. Prewitt and Miss Bettie Owings were greatly surprised last Thursday afternoon when it was learned they had just been married at the beautiful home of the bride on the Owingsville pike. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate family of the bride being present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. C. Cummins, of Winchester, pastor of the Presbyterian church of that city. Immediately after the ceremony the couple drove to this city and took the 3:47 C. & O. train for Louisville on a short bridal trip.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Owings, Sr., and is a woman possessing all those charms for which the Southern woman is noted, being one of Montgomery county's most popular and attractive women.

The groom is a son of Senator Caswell Prewitt, deceased, and is one of the best known, most popular and highly esteemed gentlemen in the county. He served one term as sheriff of this county and made an excellent public official.

Both the bride and the groom come from the oldest and most aristocratic families in the State and it is the hearty wish of the ADVOCATE that their married life may be a long, happy and prosperous one, and it affords us much pleasure in joining their countless friends with congratulations and good wishes.

Break in Main Line.

Last Friday afternoon a break was discovered in the main line of the natural gas supply in this city. Mr. Tonkin, who is the representative in charge of the office here, immediately rushed men to the break in automobiles and had the break repaired as quickly as possible. While a great many business houses were without lights and fires for a few hours and many people were forced to eat cold supper, no blame can be attached to the company, who did everything in their power to get the leak repaired as quickly as possible.

Mr. Pangburn recently purchased a beautiful lot on Lexington avenue and will begin the erection of a modern brick home in the early spring.

He was formerly Circuit Clerk, has an army of friends, is a gentleman of wide acquaintance and will prove a valuable acquisition to the staff of this old and prosperous banking institution.

JAMES R. MAGOWAN SELLS HIS STOCK

In Montgomery County Fair Association and Retires as President--Successor to Be Named in January.

The directors of the Montgomery Fair Association have purchased the stock of James R. Magowan in the association for the purpose of redistribution. Mr. Magowan will retire from the presidency and devote all his time to other interests. The association will hold a meeting in January and elect a new president and directors.

Mr. Magowan has been president of the association since its organization several years ago and made a splendid official, much of the success of the fair company being due to his personal efforts, and his retirement is deeply regretted.

Just who will be named as the new president is a question of doubt, but the stockholders are sure to elect a man of efficiency and ability and the future success of the fair is assured.
